FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION

It's back!! On the weekend of October 10th, 2008, the Springfield Symphony Guild will be holding its second "Antique Extravaganza" at Remington's on W. Republic Road - and this one promises to be even bigger and better!! Well-known dealers will come from a four-state area and Art and Antique appraisals will be available on all three days for all types of antiques - including porcelain, ivory, clocks, furniture, jewelry, toys, figurines and fine art.

The fun will begin on Thursday, October 9th, with a very special Preview Party and Show from 7:00pm – 9:00pm. All those attending will have the opportunity to shop the show before the general public, plus, there will be Tea, Coffee, Appetizers and Hors D'oeuvres, as well as Door Prizes, a Silent Auction and music provided by members of the Springfield Symphony. Tickets are just $20, and include one free appraisal. There will be a $10 fee for each additional appraisal.

Tickets to the Friday and Saturday shows are just $4 for both days and will be sold at the door. Appraisers will be available from 10:00am – 2:00pm each day for a fee of $10 per item.

All proceeds will benefit the Springfield Symphony Orchestra.
For more information call the Symphony office at (417) 864-6683.

The Springfield Symphony Guild has been in existence since 1956 when it began as the Women's Division of the Springfield Symphony Orchestra. This dynamic group of volunteers is alive and well today and has been instrumental in many wonderful fundraising projects and special events for the Symphony throughout its long and illustrious history.

The Springfield Symphony Orchestra is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation and is an EOE. Additional funding for all Springfield Symphony Orchestra programs and projects is provided by the Missouri Arts Council, a state agency
