Springfield Symphony
HOLIDAY GIFT PACKAGES
Only $110.00
(Valued at over $500)

The Springfield Symphony is delighted to announce that it is once again offering Holiday Gift Packages. Valued at over $500, these wonderful packages include two (2) Silver Level tickets to each of the five remaining Subscription Concerts for the season, a Springfield Symphony Live! CD, plus, lots of valuable coupons for use at local businesses including The Candy House, Maxon's, 417 Magazine and Harem & Company, just to name a few. What's more, all of this comes to you wrapped and ready to go!

There are only a limited number available, so be sure to get yours today. The packages are available at the Symphony office in the Creamery Arts Center, at 411 N. Sherman Parkway, and will also be available in the lobby of Juanita K. Hammons Hall on the night of the Home for the Holidays Pops concert on Saturday, December 13.

For more information on this wonderful package or any of the Symphony's programs, please call the office on (417) 864-6683.

The Springfield Symphony Orchestra is a non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation and is an EOE. Additional funding for all Springfield Symphony Orchestra programs and projects is provided by the Missouri Arts Council, a state agency
